The following communication was re ceived on yesterday, at the Telegraph office in this city, from Louisville.

"Please inform all friends that the Louisville and New Orleans line will continue to be worked regularly as far as it is completed, there is no injunction any where except against Zook's & Barnes' instrument, on the short line across Kentucky; other means of telegraphing will b used in Kentucky, until the injunction terminates next month. There are several Telegraph systems, and the public may rest assured that the business of all our lines will be continued regularly, without infringing any patents, as at Dr. WRIGHT's principal office, 169 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa. sep 9-3w there are at least twenty different modes of telegraphing, all of which are quite as original eral information of friends along the lines, and a public statement will be furnished for the newspapers by Henry O'Rilley, probably to-day or to-morrow, but in the mean time please inform editors and others that the line through inform editors and others that the line through Chills and Fever, at the same time the digestive or-Kentucky is working, and will work as regularly as any other part of the four thousand or disease in any form; will be absolutely impossi miles of the O'Reilly lines; though it will use different instruments for the present. Zooks and Barnes's instrument is worked in all the States except Kentucky, through which our line passes from Louisville to N. Orleans.

A fresh supply of the genuine and truly celebrated Wright's Indian Vegetable

HAS recently been received by the Agents in this vicinity. This medicine has the peculiar mer it of meeting the unanimous approbation of those who use it. It is no clap-trap affair—no humbug—no quack nostrum. So far from this, that it has entered argely, and is every day becoming more widely introduced, into the practice of physicians, and in proportion as they are relieved of their prejudices, do these acknowledge its merit.

To the whole West has this medicine been indeed a great blessing, subject, as it is, to the diseases peculiar to a new country. Mercury itself does not rival these Pills as an Anti-Bilious Medicine, while they produce none of the wretched results to the constitution which that mineral produces, whoever tries this medicine, will not afterward be willingly without it.
